

RESOURCES AND WEB SITES:

Adult Immunization Information for Health Professionals and Their Clients

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention National Immunization Program

www.cdc.gov/vaccines

- Provides information on diseases preventable by vaccination in adults including current vaccine recommendations and schedule

www.cdc.gov/vaccinesafety www.cdc.gov/flu

- Links to vaccine safety and influenza information

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services

www.cms.hhs.gov

- Official site for information on Medicare and Medicaid services and benefits
- Includes tools, contacts, health information resources, news and updates

Immunization Action Coalition

www.immunize.org

- Source of immunization information and educational materials for health professionals and patients, including publications specific to adult and OB/Gyn issues

www.vaccineinformation.org

- Comprehensive information about specific diseases and correlating vaccines

Michigan Care Improvement Registry (MCIR)

www.mcir.org

- Provides provider, schools/daycares, health plans and general public links to immunization information and materials and access point to immunization registry sign-on

Michigan Department of Community Health (MDCH)

www.michigan.gov/immunize

- Provides immunization information for providers and citizens of Michigan including travel vaccines, Vaccine Information Statements, brochures, and educational materials

www.michigan.gov/flu www.michigan.gov/flufighterkit www.michigan.gov/hepatitisB

- Links to seasonal and pandemic influenza websites and to Perinatal Hepatitis B Program Manual

National Foundation on Infectious Diseases' (NFID); National Coalition for Adult Immunization www.nfid.org www.nfid.org/factsheets

- Exhibits fact sheets, immunization schedules, and publications. Includes health-care worker immunization toolkit; displays action groups and membership information

National Network for Immunization Information (NNii)

www.immunizationinfo.org

- Provides fact sheets, general vaccine topics & specific information on each vaccine as it relates to adults

Public Health Emergency Preparedness and Response

www.bt.cdc.gov

- Part of the Centers for Disease and Prevention site, it provides information on smallpox, anthrax and other bioterrorism concerns

Revised January 5, 2009