

RESOURCES AND WEB SITES:

Pediatric Immunization Information for Health Professionals and Their Patients

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention National Immunization Program

www.cdc.gov/vaccines

- Provides information on diseases preventable by vaccination in children including current vaccine recommendations and schedule

www.cdc.gov/vaccinesafety www.cdc.gov/flu

- Links to vaccine safety and influenza information

Immunization Action Coalition

www.immunize.org

- Source of immunization information and educational materials for health professionals and patients, including publications specific to pediatric and vaccine safety issues

Michigan Care Improvement Registry (MCIR)

www.mcir.org

- Provides provider, schools/daycares, health plans and general public links to immunization information and materials and access point to immunization registry sign-on

Michigan Department of Community Health (MDCH)

www.michigan.gov/immunize

- Provides immunization information for providers and citizens of Michigan including travel vaccines, Vaccine Information Statements, brochures, and educational materials

National Foundation on Infectious Diseases' (NFID)

www.nfid.org

- Exhibits fact sheets, immunization schedules, and publications. Includes health-care worker immunization toolkit; displays action groups and membership information. More focus on adolescent and adult immunization.

National Network for Immunization Information (NNii)

www.immunizationinfo.org

- Provides fact sheets, general vaccine topics and specific information on each vaccine as it relates to children.

Vaccine Education Center at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia

www.vaccine.chop.edu Provides information on all aspects of vaccines and immunization

American Academy of Pediatrics Red Book; Report of the Committee on Infectious Diseases

Contains recommendations for prevention and management of infectious diseases in children. It is revised every 3 years. It is available in print form, CD-ROM, PDA, and on-line (subscription required).

Childhood Immunization Support Program

www.cispimmunize.org American Academy of Pediatrics immunization information for professionals and the general public.