Get them vaccinated this year and every year!

Keep our kids healthy and active so that they can do their very best! Children 6 months and older should be vaccinated every flu season for the best protection against flu.

Ask your health care provider today!